EVALUATIVE COMMENT:

George Buettner is a valuable member of the adjunct teaching faculty for the Master's program in Counselor Education. Mr. Buettner regularly teaches our "Using Tests in Counseling" course as well as some short term specialty workshops focused upon the use and interpretation of specific assessment instruments. He is a demanding and exacting instructor and has done an excellent job of providing instruction for the testing component of our Master's program. He is totally dependable and committed to carrying out his role as a classroom instructor and does an excellent job of presenting content which many students, initially, are quite apprehensive about.

I recommend Mr. Buettner without hesitation.
