EVALUATIVE COMMENT: Mr. Buettner is completing the coursework for a standard counseling certificate and has taught a testing course for the counseling program.

Mr. Buettner is an exceptional person and counselor. He has demonstrated an ability to listen and hear what his clients have said. He can help as they explore the problem and gently pushes them to assume responsibility for their own action plan. I strongly recommend him for a counseling position with clients of all ages.

As a faculty member he took on the challenge of teaching a testing course. All who took it were impressed by his ability to take "intimidating" concepts and present them in a meaningful and understandable way. Their ability to have hands on contact with the tests was a real strength of the course. We hope to have the opportunity to utilize his talents again. He was superb!
