EVALUATIVE COMMENT:

Hired for one year period, but time extended one year to start school program.

Professional counselor in church setting who maintained an average caseload of 12-15 appointments per week. Personal, vocational, pre-marital and mental health counseling. Conducted two week-end retreats for young marrieds on topics of marital communication and marital sexuality. Spoke to various groups on mental health topics, marriage, etc.

Founded Community Christian School, a traditional classroom program, grades preschool through grade 6. Chaired curriculum committee, hired and evaluated teaching staff, developed a volunteer program of teacher support personnel. Administered school finances, developed administrative systems. Served as school principal and school counselor for the 81-82 school year. Regular part of his responsibility to meet with parents and/or children to work on academic, attitudinal and/or behavioral problems.

Personal comments: I have appreciated having George Buettner serve on our staff. He has been a person of highest integrity and character. He was an integral part of our staff and on a good relationship with each member. As a counselor, he displayed a high degree of professionalism.

In the area of school principal, George has done a commendable job. He was very conscientious and meticulous in all matters. He performed the task of setting up a school from ground base in an admirable manner. His background in counselling has proven beneficial in dealing with student problems.

George is a fine person with many qualifications and I can recommend him without reservation in his areas of expertise.
